

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

CHRISTIAN OUTLOOK ON LOCHALSH

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone, or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession, or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up-to-date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage a list of our volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including processing Gift Aided donations);
- To inform supporters of news, events and the activities of the Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep them informed about news, events and activities, and process their gift aid donations;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided:
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the trust for purposes connected with Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in order to keep supporters informed about news, events and activities until advised otherwise; we retain gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to six years after the calendar year to which they relate.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust holds about you;
- The right to request that the Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Christian Outlook on Lochalsh Trust to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable)
[Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable)
[Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
